Gas fires provide a cheerful cosy warmth at a moment's notice. Just a match and a turn of the tap—that's all. No coals to carry. No grate cleaning. No ashes, dirt, or smoke.

Eliminates waste and speeds up output. Reduces labour. Is easily and accurately controlled, and when all factors are taken into consideration, is the most economical of fuels.

P R E F A C E.

We beg to submit the first Directory for the Burgh issued since 1915. Encouraged to undertake the work by the patronage of the Corporation and Chamber of Commerce, we have done our best to supply what these bodies desired.

We are painfully conscious that the present issue is bound to be minus matters of interest, and regret that some such information should have reached us too late for publication.

The General Directory may be taken as being complete, and the Trades' Directory and Streets Directory will be found useful also.

To the firms who favoured us with a share of their advertising we tender thanks, and feel sure that, as the Directory will be constantly consulted during the entire year, they will find its value unique and unrivalled.

The printing of the various portions of the work on different colours of paper is intended to facilitate the finding of desired information.

For such imperfections as may be discovered we tender apology in advance and promise that, in future years, no effort of ours will be spared to make the publication as perfect and as useful as possible.
